December Minutes & Committee Reports

Pikes Peak Weavers Guild - Minutes of the Board Meeting, December 14, 2007

President Linda Shaffer determined that there was no need for the board to meet.

Pikes Peak Weavers Guild - Minutes of the Regular Meeting, December 14, 2007

President Linda Shaffer called the meeting to order at 9:30 am. There were no changes to the previous meeting's minutes, so they were approved.

Vice President Edna Devai-Alth reminded everyone that the January meeting will be at the East Library with Judi Arndt as the speaker. The address and directions to the East Library will be in the next newsletter. Edna also said that for Linda Lugenbill's Basket Workshop lunch selections will be sent to participants in late January.

Treasurer Barb Byerly reported the financial information (see separate section in this newsletter).

Beverly Weaver sent around a clipboard for book purchase suggestions for the PPWG Library. She also announced a donation by Doreen McLaughlin of Looking at Twills by Leslie Voiers.

W.W. Walker said there are only 3 openings left for the major workshop by Betsy Blumenthal.

Dottie Weir had the notebook with coverlets that are still available for interpretation.

Susan Bowman announced that Living with Beauty entries were coming in from all over the United States and that very interesting work was being submitted.
